

SOCIETY NEWS AND CHAT OF THE WEEK

(Continued from Fourth Page.)

clude Mr. and Mrs. A. Berg, Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Hancock, Miss Verda Knott, E. Welsh, Miss Louise Allen, R. Hancock, Miss Sarah Rollins, Donald Brittle, Miss J. Pettit, and Claude Bittenger.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Berg, 704 F street.

Mrs. Chester L. Long will observe her annual Kansas day at home on Thursday, January 27, assisted by the ladies of the delegation. The young ladies from the State who are attending school in the city will serve chocolate and tea. All Kansans are welcome from 2 to 6.

Miss Augusta Notes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Notes, whose marriage to Joseph Brandon, of Philadelphia, will take place tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock in the Shoreham Hotel, will have as her attendants Mrs. Charles Duffy, of Alexandria, as matron of honor; Miss Teresa Shea, Miss Rosa Shea, Miss Dora Simmons, of Baltimore, and Miss Jennie Livingston as bridesmaids. Miss Carrie Notes, sister of the bride, and Miss Virginia Ale, of Alexandria, will act as flower girls.

Mr. Brandon will have as his best man, his brother, Elias Brandon, of Philadelphia, and the ushers will be Claude Glascock, Louis Solomon, of Hyattsville, Md., Louis Notes, brother of the bride, and Charles Duffy, of Alexandria.

Dr. Simons will perform the marriage service.

Miss and Mrs. Brandon, of Philadelphia, the father and mother of the bridegroom; Elias Brandon and Miss Sadie Brandon have arrived in Washington, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Notes during their stay.

The board of lady managers of the Washington Hospital for Foundlings have bought the performance of Forbes Robertson and Gertrude Elliott on Monday evening, February 4, in "Caesar and Cleopatra." The tickets will be for sale by the members of the board of which Mrs. Simon Wolf is the president, until Thursday when the regular sale of seats opens in the box office.

Mrs. James Lansburgh, 251 Fourteenth street, will be at home on Monday.

Mrs. Stern, of Norfolk, is making a visit with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Brown.

Mrs. I. L. Blunt will be at home on Tuesdays for the remainder of the season.

The reported engagement of Miss Catherine Elbert, daughter of Mrs. Mary Elbert, to Harry F. Pearson is without foundation.

Mrs. J. Eakin Gadsby entertained at an informal tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Stinemetz, of Lancaster, Pa. Her other guests were Mrs. Kohn, Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Charles R. Landis, Mrs. John W. Weeks, Mrs. Patterson, Miss Pierce, Miss Boswell, Mrs. John Paul Ernest, Miss Kelm, Mrs. Birmingham, and Mrs. Marcus J. Wright. Mrs. Gadsby will be at home on Thursday afternoon and hereafter on Thursdays with the exception of February 7.

Mme. Alfred Thierry, who is spending the winter at the Portland, will be at home tomorrow afternoon, but will not be at home on Monday, February 4. She will receive on the remaining Mondays during the season.

German Club Of Alexandria Gives Dance

The Alexandria German Club gave its midwinter dance Friday night at McTurney's Hall. It was one of the largest and most enjoyable dances of the season. Quite a number of Washingtonians were present, and a number of other cities were represented. Harry Carter Beverley, with Miss Bessie M. Jones led the couples through many intricate figures. The dancers were Miss Edith Ramsay, with Lester Slaughter; Miss Ruth Bryant, with Dr. Thomas Lee, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Brooke, of Culpeper, with T. C. Smith; Miss Launt, of Culpeper, with Mr. Goldloe; Miss Phillips, with Gwinn Dent; Miss Helen Shriver, of Union Mills, Md., with Norborne Robinson, of Washington; Elizabeth Herbert, with Jenkins Davis, of Manassas; Kitty Pollock, with Dr. Nathan Ames, both of Washington; Miss Eva Dent, with Robby Broomback, Elizabeth Worthington, with Alexander Breckenridge, both of Washington; Miss Mary Donahue, of Fairfax, Va., with Charlie Barrett; Miss Mary Dent, with Dr. Vivian Berry; Miss Mary Snowden, with Harris Franklin; Miss Hattie Douglass, with David Chambers; Miss Mary Glenn Usher, with Page Waller; Miss Jeanne Carter, with Brewer Hotfield, of Brookland, D. C.; Miss Gertrude Gold, with James Douglass; Rebecca Usher, with Charlie Smoot; Miss Annie Murphy, with Aylott Nichol; Miss Marion Bryant, with Arthur Herbert; Miss Clarence Snowden, with Magruder Dent; Miss Lida McLaughlin, with Mr. Harrison, of Maryland; Miss Liza Usher, with Kersley Seldon; Miss Launt, of Culpeper, with T. C. Smith; Miss Lucy Douglas, with Richard Chichester; Miss Jessie Armstrong, with Lewis Machen; Miss Courtney Marshall, with Harry O'Bannon Cooper; Miss Mamie Lippitt, of Berryville, with J. T. C. Hopkins, of Bel Air, Md.; Miss Julia Lippitt, with Mr. King, of Georgetown; Miss Caroline

Minister From Nicaragua Wins Washington Bride

MISS INDIA BELL FLEMING.

Col. and Mrs. Robert I. Fleming announce the engagement of their only daughter, Miss India Bell, to Senor Don Luis F. Coreia, minister to this country from Nicaragua. The wedding will take place at noon on February 27 in the home of the bride's parents on Massachusetts avenue, and will be witnessed only by intimate friends and relatives, but will be followed by a large reception. They will make their home in what is now the bachelor quarters of Mr. Coreia, at 204 O street, which is acknowledged to possess one of the handsomest interiors in Washington.

Miss Fleming is a debutante of this season and was presented to society at one of the handsomest of the functions this winter.

The keynote of the decorations at this wedding were eclecticism, instead of them being arranged in the conventional background of the receiving party in the drawing room, and the same number entering into the festooning of the stairway, the nineteenth standing for the age of the fair bud.

Miss Fleming will have a large bridal party, which has not yet been completed, as the marriage this season has only just been decided upon.

SEÑOR COREIA, of Nicaragua.

Lee, with Paul Carter, of Washington; Miss Minnie Lippitt, with Dungenfield Addison, of Fairfax. Others present were Miss Carrie Hunter, of Richmond; Miss Uggson, of Charles Town, W. Va.; Miss Gilkerson; Miss Henrietta Joseph, of Pittsburgh; Miss Annie Seldon Kemper; Mrs. Agnes Quirk, of The Plains; Miss Brook, of Culpeper; Mrs. Preston Gibson, of Leesburg, Va.; Messrs. Harry Berkeley, John Davis, Roger Stuart, Edward Aytton, Berkeley Soutaine, all of Washington; Charles Hooff, of Seminary Hill; Edmund and Stuart Hunter, Julian Burke, Wilmer Walker, John Agnew, Howard Smith, Samuel Moore, of Washington; Max Wiehle, of Venable, Va.; Francis Owings, of Rockville, R. Muncure, of Fairfax; R. Davis, of Washington; Anderson Summers, of Pennsylvania; Bowdoin Craighill, of Washington; Russell Smith, of Culpeper; Douglas Stuart, George Cochran, Percy Evans, Kersley Seldon, Belcher, Joseph Addison, Arthur Bryant, Mr. Lord, of Washington; Maylon Janney. The groom was chaperoned by Mrs. James Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smith, Mrs. Henry Robinson, Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, Mrs. George Usher, Mrs. Parham, Mrs. Anthony Armstrong, Mrs. Muchback, Mrs. Falkner, Mrs. Louis Scott, Miss Cora Cochran, Mrs. Peyton, Julian Burke, Arthur Herbert, Berkeley Fontaine, Charles Hooff, Edmund and Stuart Hunter, Dr. Ames, Norborne Robinson, Charlie Barrett, and James Douglas.

The Eight-band Euchre Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Kerschke Kemper at her home, in North Washington street. The meeting was well attended, and a delightful afternoon was spent. The members present were Mrs. William M. Usher, Miss Cora Cochran, both of whom won prizes; Mrs. Richard C. Acton, Mrs. Lawrence Perry, Mrs. Herbert Oliver, Miss Sallie Kemper, Miss Annie Murphy, Miss Anita Robinson, and Miss Mamie Agnew. The consolation prize was won by Miss Eva Dent, who, with Mrs. Carroll Ashby, were the guests of Mrs. Kemper, Mrs. Quirk, and Miss L. Smoot.

Mrs. Henry G. Kline, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel Bondhine.

Miss Helen McSherry Shriver, of Union Mills, is the guest of Miss Anne Lewis Jones.

Walton Moore, of Fairfax, Va., spent a few days in this city during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Lloyd Boothe entertained very delightfully Wednesday night at a meeting of the Senior Euchre Club. The prizes were won by Mrs. Louis S. Green and Mrs. Louis C. Barley, Clarence Leadbeater and Judge Louis Barley. The members were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, Judge and Mrs. Louis C. Barley, Mr. and Mrs. J. Leadbeater, Mr. and Mrs. George Usher, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boothe, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Robinson, Mrs. William B. Dungenfield, and Mrs. James Reid. Mr. and Mrs. Boothe had as their guests Mrs. T. Marshall Jones, Mrs. Albert D. Brockett, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bryant, Mrs. Louis C. Green, Taylor Burke, Robby Broomback, Dr. Louis S. Green, and Julian Burke.

Mrs. Albert D. Brockett was the hostess on Tuesday at a beautifully appointed bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. Joseph Taylor, of Danville. Her guests were Mrs. Louis S. Scott, Mrs. William J. Boothe, Jr., Mrs. Henry F. Robinson, and Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater. Mr. and Mrs. George Usher, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boothe, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Snowden, Mrs. Sydney Douglass, Marshall King, Carroll Ashby.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn, of Washington. Invited to meet Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn were Mr. and Mrs. John Leadbeater, Mrs. Henry Robinson, and Milton Morrell.

Mrs. William Preston Gibson, of Leesburg, is visiting Mrs. Lucy Douglas.

Miss Kitty Barrett is visiting in New York.

Misses Bessie and Nannie Jones entertained at a supper after the German in honor of their guests, Miss Helen Shriver, Miss Elizabeth Worthington, and Kitty Pollock. Invited to meet them were Messrs. John Graves, Harry Berkeley, and Harry Beverley.

Louis Scott has returned, after a three months' stay in the South.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Dorathia Lee, of Stafford county, Virginia, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. John M. Lee, to J. Linwood Antrim, of Richmond. The wedding will take place in February at the home of Miss Lee's sister, Mrs. Thomas Cardwell. Miss Lee is well known here, where she has many friends.

Mrs. Richard Gibson left Wednesday for California, where she will join Mrs. George French. They will spend some weeks in the West.

Miss Hiltrude Burroughs entertained some of her friends at the home of her father, Postmaster Burroughs.

The Rev. Beryman Green is spending Sunday in Leesburg, Va., where he will deliver a sermon in St. James' Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Joseph Taylor, who has been visiting Mrs. Albert Brockett, has returned to her home in Danville, Va.

Miss Sue Jones, of Charlottesville, is visiting Miss Charlotte Blackbourne.

Miss Bessie W. Jones has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

James Francis Nourse was married in Covington, Ky., Friday to Miss Hazel Hallard, of Wisconsin. Mr. Nourse spent several years in this city with his sister, Mrs. A. D. Brockett.

Mrs. Samuel Sardou Brent is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mac Claggett, of Winchester, spent a few days in this city during the past week.

Miss Elizabeth Worthington and Miss Kitty Pollock, of Washington, spent Friday night with Miss Bessie Jones. Miss Worthington and Miss Pollock were at the German.

Miss Elani Murphy, recently a teacher in the Virginia Female Institute, in Staunton, Va., has come here to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Cox. Miss Murphy had to resign her position on account of ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thompson had as their guest during the past week, Dr. James Vance, who officiated at the installation of the Rev. J. R. Servier.

Miss Sallie Stuart has been visiting Miss Alice Leigh, in Richmond, Va.

The Thursday Club was entertained this week by Mrs. William B. Smoot. Mrs. Stewart Jamieson won the prize. Others present were Mrs. Thomas Robinson, Mrs. Emmet C. Dunne, Mrs. James Reid, Mrs. Henry Robinson, Mrs. William J. Boothe, Jr., Mrs. Arthur Snowden, and Mrs. George Usher.

Miss Carrie Hunter is the guest of Miss Katherine Stuart.

Bishop Potter, of New York; Bishop Gibson, of Richmond; Bishop Barton, of Kentucky; Bishop Strange, of Carolina, and Bishop Satterlee, of Washington, were in the city during the past week.

KIPLING'S WINTER RESORT.

Rudyard Kipling, who dislikes the winter climate of England, will blot out the winter months from his calendar by a visit to South Africa, where he has a beautiful house near Cape Town, given to him by Cecil Rhodes, in Sussex, England, where he passed the summer. He has a farm of his own, to which he devotes his afternoons after three hours of writing in his den among the cables of his Elizabethan house. He saw the proof sheets of his new book before sailing, but his further literary plans have not yet been divulged.

Y. M. C. A. CLUB MEETING TO HEAR BUFFALO MAN

In the gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon, Robert G. Freeman, of Buffalo, N. Y., will address the club meeting at 7:30.

W. H. H. Smith will address the meeting at the Northeast Temple this afternoon. Thirty minutes will be devoted to stereopticon views and song service. A short talk will be given by Ernest Eaton, of Australia.

QUEEN WILL EXHIBIT SOME OF HER PAINTINGS

ROME, Jan. 26.—The Queen of Italy is about to come before the public as an artist. Queen Helena, who has been studying under the eminent painter, Casciano, will exhibit at the Venice salon two or three of her best pictures, which are landscapes.

Italians are looking forward with great interest to see specimens of their Queen's art-work. In her native Montenegro, the Queen's talent for painting was well known and admired.

Queen Helena also practices the beautiful art of bookbinding, and is now exhibiting some of her work in Milan. She has bound with her own hands some priceless MSS. in the royal library in her library, which is equipped with the finest tools for stamping and embossing leather.

QUEEN BECOMES FAMOUS AS PICTURE PAINTER

PARIS, Jan. 26.—Queen Helena, of Italy, who has studied so diligently at painting, has made such great progress, especially in water-colors, that her master, Signor Casciano, the painter, has declared that if her water-colors were exhibited at Venice they would be found among those of the best-known artists. The Academy Milanese, at Brera, who already counts among its honorary members the German Emperor and the King of Portugal, has expressed a desire to number also the clever Queen among its members.

THE BABY'S SMALL TALK.

"How is Bilkin's baby boy getting along?" "Fine. I was up there yesterday and was surprised to learn that he is beginning to talk." "Does he pronounce his words plainly?" "Not very. They sound like a railroad brakeman calling out stations."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

ORIGIN OF WORTE COLOR SCHEMES

From the efforts of Naturalist R. W. Denton of Westley, Mass., go suggestions in hues and shapes for Worth gowns. La Farge windows and many other results of artistic excellence. Mr. Denton is a collector and dispenser of butterflies of the wonderfully colored beauties of the tropics. He has one of the finest collections of butterflies in the world.

E. F. DROOP & SONS CO.

TOMORROW MORNING THE NEW Edison & Victor RECORDS

FOR FEBRUARY WILL BE ON SALE.

PRICE=35c to $5.00=PRICE

LET US PLAY THEM FOR YOU

Our stock is the largest in this section of the country, and we can furnish every style of Edison and Victor machine or any record in the catalogue.

Machines Sold on Time If Desired.

E. F. DROOP & SONS CO.
925 Penna. Ave.

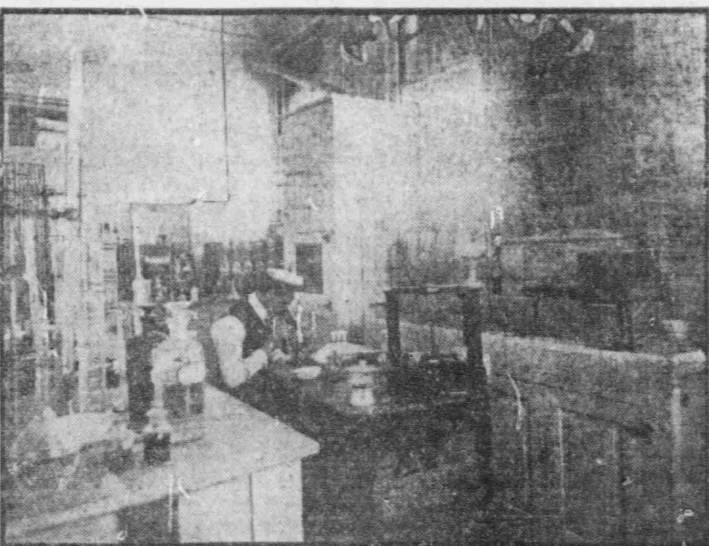

WE ARE GLAD TO HAVE PEOPLE INSPECT THIS BAKERY

Corby's Mother's Bread

Is Made of the Purest, Most Wholesome, Most Nutritious Ingredients

Pure food isn't a question of today with us, for the products of this bakery long ago established the standard for Bread.

We illustrate our laboratory. Every ingredient we use in our product is tested here ---for its purity and for those qualities that mean nourishment. The installing of this laboratory has given us a material advantage, for it assures that what we use is of the highest grade obtainable and that fact has now become so well established and known that the consumer who wants what is best for health thinks of the one bread and insists on having Corby's Mother's Bread.

Corby's Modern Bakery

Dorothy Dodd
SHOES

$3.50

$4.00

Try One Pair

To be once accurately fitted with a pair of our "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes is to possess the charm of a pretty foot and the luxury of a comfortable one.

And, withal, they are most economical shoes. The Glazed Kid and Gun Metal styles are priced at $3.50. Patent Leathers at $3.50 and $4.00.

This store has the exclusive agency.

PARKER, BRIDGET & CO.,

Head-to-Foot Outfitters. 9th and Pa. Ave.